According to the U.S. Census Bureau, 15.4% of North Carolinians live below the poverty line*. Poverty is a reality for many individuals and families. Unless you’ve experienced poverty, it’s difficult to truly understand.

*https://tinyurl.com/yc9vb3ne

Community Action Poverty Simulation©

Spend a simulated month in the poverty experienced by our state’s individuals and families. This interactive event promotes poverty awareness, increases understanding, and inspires local change. This is not a game.

When: January 24-25, 2018
Lunch Provided at Noon | Simulation at 1-4:00 p.m.

Where: The Sonja Haynes Stone Center at UNC Chapel Hill
Free to Attend, Registration Required.

Questions? kdonnald@unc.edu

Sponsored by: